GOVERNOR MANN UNDER THE KNIFE

Executive Rallies Quickly From the Operation Yesterday.

APPENDIX REMOVED.

Early Recovery Promised—Symtoms Are Said to be Entirely Favorable to the Patient.

Richmond, Va., April 22.—Following a second attack of appendicitis about noon yesterday, Governor Mann was taken from the Executive Mansion to the Memorial Hospital and the diseased organ removed. He went through the ordeal with flying colors, and last night was resting quietly. On account of his excellent physical condition, the attending physicians expect the Governor to make rapid recovery.

Hospital authorities gave out his situation to be very cheering last night. His temperature was about normal, his pulse only slightly fast, his respiration regular and easy, and his general condition but a little deranged by the shock of the operation and the reaction from the anaesthetic. Gas and oxygen were used to produce anaesthesia instead of ether, and the Governor experienced practically no nausea and was in possession of his full faculties before leaving the surgical table.

The operation was performed by Dr. Charles R. Robins, assisted by Dr. Henry Wyreman Cooke. The anaesthetic was administered by the hospital specialist, Dr. R. P. Stryker. Among those who witnessed the operation were Dr. Lewis C. Bosher, Dr. Manfred Call and Dr. Herbert Mann, the medical men who attended the Governor, and Dr. Stuart McGuire, who was called into consultation by Dr. Robins, before it was determined to remove the appendix.

According to the statement of Dr. Mann and Dr. Robins, his condition has at no time been threatening. The renewal of the illness yesterday morning, was not severe, but served to warn the physicians that the Governor would be subject to recurring attacks of pain until the cause of the trouble were cut away. Accordingly, the physicians told the Governor the true situation; that he would be annoyed by frequent pains, that an operation would have to be performed, in all probability at some future time if not now, and that it was the best policy to operate while the patient was in the most favorable physical condition.

Governor Mann immediately expressed his willingness to abide by the decision.

"You may operate at once, if you think best," he said.

Dr. Robins said yesterday that the operation was more a precautionary measure than a vital necessity.

"We really dcided to operate today because Governor Mann is in such physical trim," he said. "In his present condition he will rally much quicker and surer from the ordeal than if we waited to remove his appendix after a more severe attack of the disease. An operation would sooner or tlaer have been necessary."

One week ago today the Governor was taken with the first attack of appendicitis, which, while confining, was not alarming to Dr. Herbert Mann, the executive's nephew, who was called in attendance. After consultation. Dr. Mann determined not to operate unless the Governor's condition showed a change for the worse, and this decision was strength ended when the executive responded readily to treatment. He continued to regain strength and normal health until yesterday morning when the pain again made itself felt.

On account of the proximity of the mansion to the Memorial Hospital, it was not necessary to convey the Governor to the operating table in an ambulance, and the short journey was made by the patient in a kind of a huge basket litter, carried by four stout hospital orderlies. He reached the hospital at 1:10 o'clock; fifteen minutes later he had been prepared for the ordeal and was placed on the surgical table and at 2:10 o'clock it was all completed and the patient removed to his private room.

Contrary to street rumors, no complications were discovered, and only the simple operation for appendicitis was performed. The appendix was found to be badly inflamed and diseased.

As soon as the incision in the Governor's abdomen was bandaged and the finishing touches completed, the anaesthiing hood was lifted from the patient's face and consciousness was restored almost on the instant, before he left the table. The Governor looked around, smiled feebly, and said:

"I am feeling fine."

The governor was then removed from the operating room No. 3, on the main floor and placed in the care of a special nurse. He will have the attention of two special nurses one by day and the other through the night. After being placed in bed the executive appeared to experience practically no pain or shock. Before many hours his wife and son was admitted to his presence. He spoke to them in a low, but cheerful, tone.

It will be several days before any one but the members of his family will be admitted to his room.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The German imperial parliament took a bold step yesterday as a sequel to the disclosures made by Dr. Carl Liebknecht, the socialist leader, in regard to the relations of the Krupp firm with officials of the war office for the purpose of gaining information about contracts. When the military budget came before the committee today a large majority of the members voted to cut down the appropriations and to drop the posts of commandants at Dresden, Darmstadt, Karlsruhe and Stuttgart. The war minister and other officials protested in the strongest way against the action, both from a political and military standpoint.

Practically half of the Atlantic Coast Corporation's two million dollar plant at Georgetown, S. C., said to be the largest in the world, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is reported to be fully covered by insurance. Two big mills, the electrict light plant and 11,500,000 feet of lumber were burned. The employes succeeded in saving two other mills and the docks. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The first serious break in the main dikes in the lower Mississippi valley occurred yesterday afternoon, when the Woodlawn levee, just north of Mayersville, Miss., went out. Parts of four Mississippi counties will be flooded and the property damage which will result is estimated at more than a million dollars. A conservative estimate is that between 11,000 and 12,000 persons will be made homeless as a result of the break.

In the presence of a record-breaking crowd, the new Cunard liner Aquitania one of the biggest and most luxurious steamers afloat, was successfully launched yesterday at Clydebank. The new steamer is one of the most luxurious in the trans-Atlantic service. Accommodating 3,790 passengers, the big ship will have a theater company the amusement of the first and second cabins, carryng a theatrical company with a repertoire of plays. There will be Turkish and electric baths. According to Cunard officials, not only is the steamer up-to-date in every way as regards luxury, but is fully equipped with all of the latest safety devices, as well as the number of lifeboats necessary to accommodate the large number of passengers in the event of accident.

While upward of 50,00 men are on strike throughout Belgium, according to the estimates of the Socialists, both sides seem to be marking time in anticipation of the debate in the Chamber of Deputies today on the motion of the Liberal Leader, M. Masson, looking to a compromise on the suffrage question. Acts of violence continue to be rare and are in most cases attributed to other causes than the strike. A large number of telegraph poles and wires have been cut, however, and the minister of war has notified all the owners of carrier pigeons that he will command the birds for military purposes in case of necessity.

WILL PRESENT NEW TARIFF BILL

BOUND BY THE CAUCUS

Minority Will Adhere to Tariff Board Report on the Wool and Cotton Schedules.

Washington, April 22.—Congressman Underwood will render to the House this afternoon the Democratic tariff bill, as agreed upon by the party caucus. The full Ways and Means Committee held a meeting during the forenoon, and the minority members, for the first time, were permitted to take a hand in the tariff tinkering.

The minority members were given a belated opportunity to come in and vote "no" on the Democratic bill; then the majority voted "aye" and instructed Mr. Underwood to report the measure.

The Democratic majority is bound by the caucus to stand by the Underwood bill, and it will go through the house as is came from the caucus.

The Republican minority in the House, adhering to the tariff board report on the wool and cotton schedules will be substitutes for schedules for K and I in the Underwood tariff bill when the measure comes at a final vote in the lower body.

A course of action, rather than non-action, was decided upon at a conference of the Republican members held last night. The conference voted down a resolution offered by Congressman Moore of Pennsylvania, which declared, in effect, that the Republicans should permit the Democrats to revise the tariff in their own way, and that the minority should not feel called upon to submit substitutes for any schedules in the Democratic bill.

Mr. Moore and Mr. Fordney argued in vain that such a course on the part of the minority might bring embarrassment two years hence—provided Republicans again obtain control of the house. The conference postponed action until Thursday night on the cotton bill, but it approved the wool bill supported by the minority during the last session of Congress.

Pope's Condition Satisfactory.

Rome, April 22.—The condition of Pope Pius again was so satisfactory today that no bulletin was issued. Mgr. Bressan, the Pope's chaplain, said the pontiff slept unbrokenly the latter part of the night. In the early hours he was disturbed frequently by coughing, but shortly after midnight he insisted on his attendants retiring and then dropped into a natural sleep.

Stimulants are given the Pope every hour when he is awake, but when he is sleeping he no longer is disturbed for medicine or food.

LOVE FOR BALL PROVES FATAL.

Boy Persists in Paying Until Lockjaw Develops.

Richmond, April 22.—Lockjaw caused the death of "Willie" Wade, 15 years old, of the Richmond Male Orphan Asylum, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning in the Virginia Hospital, to which institution he was taken Saturday by Mrs. J. R. Gill.

The boy's great love for baseball and his determination to play regardless of a sore foot, which had been pierced by a rusty nail, probably caused tetanus to develop and end the little fellow's life.

Mrs. Gill was greatly distresed when she learned of the little boy's death this morning. She said that he had been advised not to persist in playing baseball while his foot was sore, but that he refused to heed the warning. A serum to combat tetanus was administered, but without avail, as the child's trouble was too far advanced to be checked.

ALEXANDRIAN IN CUBA

William A. Merchant Has Notable Career in Finance.

Atlanta, Ga., April 22.—The two principal banking institutions of Cuba have southern men at their heads says the current issue of the Southern Banker, of Atlanta, Ga. William A. Merchant, of Virginia, is president of the National Bank of Cuba, and Norman H. Davis, of Tennessee, is president of the Trust Company of Cuba.

Mr. Merchant's recent election to the presidency of the National Bank of Cuba places a southern man at the head of the largest financial institution on the island. The bank maintains branches in all the principal points and is a strong factor in the trade between Cuba and the states. He was born in Alexandria, Va., in 1862, and after graduating from St. John's Military Academy in that city began his business career as a railroad telegraph operator. After a short service he was promoted to the company's general office and passed eight years a sa member of the executive staff. From the railroad Mr. Merchant went to R. G. Dun & Co., and for thirteen years was manager of various of their branches in the United States. In 1899 he was made general manager of the department of the West Indies, with a territory extending to the South American coast. The latter position he resigned to accept the vice-presidency of the National Bank of Cuba.

Mr. Merchant has ben prominently identified with affairs ever since he went to Cuba and his career since becoming an officer in the National Bank Cuba has been a noteworthy one.

RETROCESSION AGAIN.

Proposition to Bring Suit in the Supreme Court.

Hannis Taylor, former Minister to Spain, and John Joy Edson will call on President Wilson this afternoon to lay before him the proposition to begin suit in the Supreme Court of the United States for the retrocession of the land in Alexandria county to the District of Columbia. In the last days of President Taft's administration the matter was discussed and the feasibility of entering such a suit considered, but no action taken.

Former Attorney General Wickersham believed the proper course of procedure to reacquire the territory was by congressional action. The various plans for doing this will be presented by Mr. Edson, so that the views of Washington business men can be given.

THE FISHING SEASON.

Corporation Wharf Dormant—Forty Thousand Herring Landed Sunday.

Conditions on Fishtown, though the season is nearing its close, were as quiet as a graveyard this morning. A few scales were bespattered on the end of the wharf, reminders of the receipt and cutting of a jag of about 40,000 herring last Sunday. Several would-be-cutters—colored women—were loitering about and straining their eyes down the river to see if any thing was in sight.

The finer varieties of roe shad were still at 75 cents each in market this morning. Gillers, however, were disposing of their catches in the streets at much lower prices.

About all the shad which come to this post at present are caught by Alexandrians in gill nets a short distance below Jones's Point.

FUNERALS.

The funerals of Asher B. Travis adn his grandson, C. B. Travis was held this afternoon. R. Strausburg. The remains of both men were interred in Union Cemetery.

FRICTION WITH JAPAN POSSIBLE

THE TENSION IS GREAT

United States Department of Justice Ready to Intervene as Soon as Statute is Passed.

Washington, April 22.—President Wilson will bring the Japanese question to a crisis today with a public telgeram to Governor Hiram Johnson ,appealing to him in the name of the United States government not to embroil the nation in a quarrel with a friendly neighbor.

He will not question California's right to enact such legislation as its government sees fit to intimate that he desires to encroach upon the sovereign rights of the State.

He will merely ask California in his name to avoid needless trouble and to prevent any friction that is not absolutely necessary in the passage of any laws upon which the state apparently has set its heart.

This announcement came immediately after a visit to the President by Congressmen Raker, Kettner and other Californians today. They reiterated California's attitude and showed the President the bills against which the greatest criticism has been directed by Japan.

The President was apparently so alarmed that he determined to appeal to Governor Johnson without delay.

The real fear of the officials in Washington is that there will be outbreak of anti-American feeling among the "jingoes" of Japan. Last week's demonstrations were not of a widespread scale, but they were of sufficient importance to indicate clearly the trend of general feeling. And if there should start a general spread of anti-American demonstrations throughout Japan, it would easily become possible to force the hand of government along even general war lines.

Most wars, whether of fleets and armies, or only of trade and merchants, it was pointed out today by the statesmen who were watching the outcome of the present problem carefully, have started originally in popular agitation. And even a trade jar with Japan would prove costly at this particular time.

There are a few extremists here who insist that Japan is trying to seize upon some pretext for war before the Panama Canal can be opened for business, but they are in the minority, and their assertions are not receiving much attention. President Wilson, however, is personally handling the entire matter because of its importance to his administration, and there is no single phrase that does not have his attention.

It is known that he believes a trade war is certain to follow enactment of the proposed laws, and that in addition Japan is likely to file an enormous claim for a monetary indemnity for those of its citizens who come under the provisions of the contemplated act. This is all likely to prove a costly procedure in his opinion.

READY FOR HOOFF TRIAL.

Attorney John L. Jeffries, of Norfolk, who will have charge of the defense of Lewis Hooff, former general manager of the Mercantile Railway Building and Loan Association, whose third trial commences in the Corporation Court tomorrow, arrived here this morning. ## LOCAL BREVITIES.

Officer Nicholson prevented an unnecessary alarm of fire from being turned in late yesterday afternoon. The chimney of a house on Princess street, between Henry and Fayette, was sending out a volume of blaze, which caused considerable excitement to the inmates and neighborhood. The policeman sent men on the roof with buckets of water and soon subdued the fire.

A deed for the property was placed on record today. The consideration was given at $8,000.

It is the object of the new owners to increase the capacity of the works, by making certain additions and improvements. ## HOUSE BEGINS AN INVESTIGATION

Committee Take Evidence on the Sims-Glover Assault Case.

OUTCOME OF A FEUD.

Congressional Investigators Purpose to Rush Work to Make Report by Next Saturday.

Washington, April 22.—Preparations were made shortly before noon today for an investigation of the attack made upon Congressman Thetus W. Sims, by Charles C. Glover, the banker, last Friday, when the select committee named by the House met in the House Office Building and began to take the testimony of witnesses to the Farragut Square alterestion.

The actual taking of testimony was delayed half an hour by the receipt of a letter from Charles C. Glover, against whom contempt proceedings are in progress. The committee retired in executive session to consider the letter which is understood to be in the nature of an apology to the House, but also questions the right of that body to proceed in the trial of the banker.

Details regarding the contents of the letter were withheld by the investigating committee, but Mr. Glover was not present at the appointed hour and he is reported to have informed the House investigators that he would not be present without an actual subpoena. The committee had merely notified Mr. Glover of the hearing as the present proceedings are preliminary, and do not constitute a trial.

Shortly before the hearing was scheduled to begin today the three witneses of the fracas put in their appearance at the House judiciary room.

PETITION FOR AN APPEAL.

Voluminous Record in Annexation Case Prepared By Clerk Rucker

The record in the suit of the City of Alexandria against the counties of Alexandria and Fairfax to secure additional territory was completed yesterday by George H. Rucker, clerk of Alexandria Circuit Court, and will be turned over to the attorneys of Alexandria City as soon as they can go to Alexandria county court house and verify the record. This will be done some time this week and work will be immediately started on the petition for an appeal to the Supreme Court of Virginia. The petition will be filed early in May, but will not be considered by the Supreme Court until they meet in Wytheville in June.

In case the Supreme Court decides that the facts as stated in the petition, warrant an appeal, it will have the case docketed and will later in the summer take up the evidence and permit the filing of briefs by the attorneys of the city and counties. The final decision will be reached by the higher court and it will not be referred to another judge for a rehearing.

The record in the case is extremely voluminous and has required several months time to prepare. In addition to the preliminary motions and demurrers which were heard by Judge Thornton, it contained 1350 pages of testimony which was given before Judge Bennett T. Gordan, of Nelson county, and more than 20 large maps which were introduced as evidence.

The expense of the appeal will be large, the cost for the printing of the record being one of the largest items. It is estimated that the printed text will require two large volumes.

Alexandria city is represented by Corporation Attorney Samuel P. Fisher, John M. Johnson and Samuel G. Brent, who will have charge of the case before the Supreme Court.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

J. D. Knight has been awarded the contract for making certain alterations in the building occupied by Geo. H. Hinken & Son, as a furnishing house in order that it may be used as an exhibition hall for moving pictures, etc.

Three score years ago this building situated on the south side of King street, near Washington, was known as Washington Hall, where theatrical performances were given. It was for a long time a popular resort, but Old Liberty Hall, on Cameron street, Sarepta Hall and other places finally overshadowed Washington Hall and for over half a century it has been used for other purposes For many years the general office of the Orange, Alexandria and Mannassas (now a division of the Southern Railway) was in this building.

There are three vacancies to be filled on the Police Board, caused by resignations.

There is at present but one member of the Board of Police Commissioners—A. H. Ohlert, representing the Third Ward. The candidates in other wards are as follows: 1st ward, J.E. Shin;2d ward, Milton Fairfax, and R. E. Knight; 4th ward, N. J. Lawler and T. Calvert Perry.

The following are the members of the School Board whose terms have expired: First Ward, Oscar F. Phillips; 2d Ward, T. M. Ervin; 3rd Ward, Dr. W. M. Smith; 4th Ward, J. Frank Myers.

The chairmen of the other important committees say the other business to be presented is of a general nature.

Services Nightly in the Second Baptist Church on North Columbus Street.

Considerable interest is manifested in the revival meetings now in progress in the Second Baptist Church. Rev. J. Murray Taylor, of Middleburg, Va., is assisting the pastor, Rev. C. Kelly Hobbs. Rev. Mr. Taylor last night preached a practical and forceful sermon on "Loss of Joy in Salvation." At the close of his discourse an invitation was extended to those present to come forward and announce their interest in the plan of salvation. Some accepted the invitation and others asked the prayers of the church.

The meetings will be held nightly until further notice.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

VIRGINIA MILITIA GAINING.

Annual Report of the Adjutant General of the State.

Richmond, Va., April 22.—The annual report of Adjutant-General W. W. Sale, a volume of 350 pages shows that the total strength of the Virginia Volunteers is now 2,620 composed of 203 officers and 2,417 enlisted men. The State militia is stronger at this time by about 200 than at any period since the Spanish war. This force is divided into the following branches: Infantry, 148 officres and 2,147 enlisted men; field artillery, 18 officers and 206 men; signal corps, 18 officers and 58 men; general staff officers, 17 officers and 1 man.

Naturally, Richmond posseses the largest militia garrison, having stationed here a total of 52 officers and 576 men; while Norfolk second, with a force of 35 officers and 355 men. Portsmouth has 17 officers and 193 men. Staunton, 12 officers and 163 men, and twenty-one other Virginia towns maintain one full company each. Changes in the organization of the Virginia Volunteers were few in 1912; 20 companies were disbanded, but two new companies were recruited: Company K, Second Infantry Regiment, at Strasburg, and Company D, Fourth Infantry Regiment, at Norfolk.

The Adjutant-General reports that the State appropriation amounted last year to $65,806.17, which, though an increase of $6,058 over the preceding year, was inadequate. The additional $6,000 was of no practical advantage to the militiamen, owing to the fact that the Bureau of Confederate Military Records was made a part of this department.

That all persons accepting commission in the Virginia Volunteers be required to pledge their intention to continue in the service for at least one, two or three years; provided, of course, their service is satisfactory, or their reason for resigning is most urgent.

That quarters be provided for the organization and maintenance of a field hospital at Richmond.

That allowance be made for renting additional office space for the military department.

That a special appropriation of $15,000 or $20,000 be made for the erection of a state arsenal and storage rooms, or rent for the same be voted annually.

That the service of an expert rifleman from the United States Army be obtained to instruct the Virginia Volunteers in target practice.

UNITED STATES AND JAPAN.

Virginia Missionary Says There is no Danger of War.

Richmond, April 22.—Colonel Chapman, revenue agent here and famous as a number of Mosby's Rangers, sees little likelihood of real serious results of the situation between Japan and the United States over the California anti-alien land ownership bill.

Colonel Chapman's son, Rev. James Chapman, is a missionary at Nara Ken, Japan, and only recently returned to the Orient after an extended furlough here. Rev Mr. Chapman has been in Japan for the past twelve years and is in close touch with its people of all classes because of his work.

Colonel Chapman says that, judging by his son's talk during his visit here, the better class of Japanese and the government itself, never seriously considered bucking Uncle Sam at the war game. The missionary ha stsated that the people of Japan feel warmly toward Americans and are inclined to regard humorously the talk about a possible or eventual war with this country, which been hearlded frequently within the past few years "Reports from all missionaries and other Americans there are the same," said Colonel Chapman and unless the lower class of citizens, the fire-eaters and radically inclined force the government to throw down the gauntlet to America, there will be no war between the United States and Japan—now nor in the near future.

"The Japanese nation is now burdened with debt and its people have refused to stand for increased army and navy taxation—witness the recent cabinet troubles—and the present mikado is more inclined to Christianity than any ruler heretofore. All of these conditions point to the remoteness of a declaration of war."

Death of A. H. Christian.

Richmond, April 22.—Andrew H. Christian, Jr., 54 years old, president of the Richmond Paper Manufacturing Company, president of the Southern Railway Supply Company and a prominent bank drector, died suddenly of heart trouble about 2 o'clock yesterday morning in his home, 204 West Franklin street.

WOMAN KILLED BY HUSBAND.

He Was Aiming at a Hawk and Shot His Wife.

Roanoke, Va., April 22—Mrs. Thos. Prillman, who lives at Prillman, several miles below Rocky Mount, on the Norfolk and Western, was killed Sunday, by a gun in the hands of her husband. Before she expired Mrs. Prillman declared no blame should be attached to Mr. Prillman, as the shooting was accidental.

Mrs. Prillman saw several hawks Sunday morning descend on her chicken yard. She called her husband to get his gun and shoot them. Prillman went into the yard with his gun. When he raised it to his shoulder and was about to cock it the weapon exploded before he had taken the proper aim and the charge struck his wife in the back just above the left kidney. The husband was almost overcome, but got to the road and called Dr. Dillard, of Rocky Mount, who was passing. She was conscious when the physician reached her and to him she made the statement exonerating her husband. She died within half an hour.

PRESIDING ELDERS CHANGED.

Transfers Made After Conference Session.

Staunton, Va., April 22.—Since the adjournment of the last session of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, changes have been made in four presiding elderships and in three charges.

Though it is unusual for any changes to be made after the adjournment of the conference ,except in case of death or emergencies the presiding bishop has this power and Bishop John C Kilgo nas exercised it.

The changes are:

NEWSPAPER PLANT BURNS.

Three Lynchburg Dailies Put Out of Commission For a Time.

Lynchburg, Va., April 22—Fire and a strike yesterday put three daily newspapers of Lynchburg out of commission, the News building from which the morning News and Advance were published being wrecked by fire yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, while the employes of The Progress,the afternoon paper started last October, went out because of a misunderstanding with the new management. The plant was idle part of the day. Both afternoon papers were able to issue papers from job offices and the News appeared this morning in about the same way.

The fire in the News building started in the press room and practically all the machinery, including a battery of six Mergenthaler Linotypes, was ruined. The fire communicated to an adjoining structure where probably $25,000 damage was done, covered by insurance.

The newspaper loss will probably be as much as $80,000, with $20,000 insurance. The files of the News, dating from 1850, and those of the Advance, beginning with 1880, were soaked with water.

WED IN FREDERICKSBURG.

Novelist Marries Miss M. C. Kimbrough, of Greenwood, Miss.

Fredericksburg, Va., April 22.—Upton Sinclair, of ussum, Holland, author of "Jungles," claimed Miss Mary Craig Kimbrough, daughter of Judge and Mrs. A. McG. Kimbrough, of Greenwood, Miss., as his bride here yesterday evening, the ceremony being performed at the home of Mrs. John Thurman, who is a relative of the contracting parties.

The bride is a descendant of Governor Bradford, of Massachusetts, and a cousin of Senator John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi. She was accompanied here by her aunt, Mrs. W. S Green, of California. Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair departed for New York where they will spend some time before going to Holland to reside.

MISSING VIRGINIAN.

Engineer Has Not Been Heard of Since April 8.

Baltimore, Md., April 22.—Believing that Charles Stacy, 37 years old, an electrical engineer of Clifton Forge, Va., has met with foul play or is suffering from lapse of memory in this city, his relatives have asked Marshall Farman to aid them in getting a trace of his movements since he came to Baltimore, April 8.

Stacy is a member of the Eagles and F. L. Simpson, one of his associates and also a member of the order, was at police headquarters yesterday. Stacy was at the Eagles' Club in this city on April 8, and then wrote his wife that he expected to be home in a few days but she has heard nothing from him since.

Yesterday policemen made inquiry at all of the hospitals, but they found no trace of him.

He left his home in Clifton Forge several months ago to do some engineering work at Union Bridge, Carroll county. It is known that he finished the job and from there came to this city.

ARE YOU ONE OF THE 1977 POLITICAL NONENITIES ?

There are 1977 white men in the City of Alexanrdia who are political nonenities, men who think so little of their citizenship that they fail to qualify themselves to vote. Are you one of this number ?

According to the United States census statistics, as published in the Gazette, last night, there are 4.650 men in Alexandria who are of legal voting age. 3,400 of this number are white men and should take an interest in the affairs of their city, state and nation. Of this number only 1,417 have qualified up to today, according to the statement of City Treasurer Robinson. This includes the negro voters, who have paid their taxes, so the real number in Alexandria of legal age, who have failed in their first duty to their country, is in reality more than 2,000.

If you are of this number you are no better off politically than the meanest beggar in the streets. You have no voice in the affairs of either your local community or the National government. Nobody cares what your opinions are because you have no vote. As a contemporary puts it your wishes are considered no more than the wishes of the inhabitants of the South Sea Islands by the politicians, and how much they are considered by the officeholder depends altogether on the character of the officeholder, with whose selection you have nothing to do. If a high minded man is chosen by those who have the choice he will consider the wishes of all of the people, but he will consider more the wishes of those who have considered themselves enough to become voters. If he be high-minded, it is not the work of the disfranchised that he has been elevated to office. It is without them so far as they are concerned a matter of chance.

It is easy enough to change this situation. All that you have to do is to call on City Treasurer, Thomas W. Robinson, in the City Hall, who will put you on the books in a few minutes.

There are eleven days remaining so that you can vote this year. It will only take a few minutes to arrange this matter.

Lack of opportunity cannot be given as a reason for failure. At lunch hour or after the day's work is finished the unqualified man can become qualified. He can in a few minutes, change from a political nonenity to a free man with a ballot. He can in na few minutes, change from one having nothing to say in the afairs of city, State and National government to one whose wishes must be considered to some degree by those in power and those who wish to be put in power.

CALIFORNIA AND THE JAPANESE.

The periodical Japanese bogy is on the screen again in California. As on previous occasions, the delegates in the egislature of that state are temporarily inexorable, and pretend they are about to defy the federal government by the adoption of anti-Japanese laws.

Their program at the recurrence of this vexed trouble is drastic, and it has caused ill-considered talk in Tokio by people who, however, in no wise represent the Mikado nor his cabinet.

Two new bills dealing with the questions of land ownership by aliens in California, each representing the view of a considerable faction in the Legislature, will be offered and voted on by the Senate this week.

Through an agreement reached by leaders o fthe majority party,a drastic law directed solely against the Japanese and Chinese will be prepared as a substitute for the Thompson-Birdsall measure, and probably will be passed. If not, an end will have come to the anti-alien land legislation at this session, floor leaders declare. It is now planned to throw out entirely the guarded language of the Thompson-Birdsall bill and put in its place two simple prohibitions:

First—No alien who is ineligible to citizenship shall be permitted to acquire and hold land in California for a period of more than one year after date of such acquisition.

Second—No corporation, the majority of stock of which is held by aliens who are ineligible to citizenship, shall be permitted to acquire and hold it exeept for one year.

According to information from Washington, President Wilson is anxious concerning the outcome of the matter, and has communicated with Governor Johnson in order that some understanding may be reached to bring about a more favorable understanding between this country and Japan.

As was the case several years ago when the school question in California was the issue, some American alarmists see the red horse of war praning and scenting the battle from afar.

A large majority, however, do not anticipate any serious outcome of the matter, believing that the trouble will be settled by diplomacy.

The definition given by General Sherman of war is in the lexicons of all countries. Japan has as clear idea of the etymology of the word as any other nation. The island kingdom will be at least fifty years in recuperating from the results of her attack on Russia. The Mikado, too, has troubles at home, a large percentage of his people chafing under the great burdens of keping up a large navy and army. Besides Korea, which has been virtually absorbed by the Japanese, would not be enthusiastic were its oppressors to become entangled with any other nation and would doubtless give trouble at home.

Russia is spending great sums in adding to its navy and keeping up a large army. The Czar does not make his ultimate purpose known, but, sooner or later, the bear will find his opportunity to avenge the humiliation brought about by being attacked in an unexpected manner. This, probably, causes more uneasiness in Japan than the proposed California alien laws.

SON GONE MOTHER STARVES

Insists She Will Not Eat Again Until Missing Boy is Found.

Beverley, N. J., April 22.—Refusing to touch food since her son, Howard E. Scholey ran away from home, last Thursday, Mrs. Phillip Horner is critically ill at her home, while friends believing that the only hope of saving her life rests in the return of the boy, have enlisted the aid of the police of the state in a search for him.

Announcing that he was going to Philadelphia to witness a Wild West show, the boy left town with Albert Brown, a former circus employe. The boy is 17 years old, 5 feet 4 inches tall, light complexioned and with his eyeteeth capped with gold.

THAT NEW SWEETHEART OF MINE.

Her blush outrivals rose's fairest shade,
Her mouth is sweet and tempting, and it seems as if it might,
For an ardent lover's kisses have been made.

The whole truth of the matter is I'm just about half mad
Concerning this entrancing little girl,
And her image is before me night and day and makes me glad,
And keeps my heart forever in a whirl.

It isn't just a fancy, of that you may be sure,
Her charms affect me like some rare old wine,
And my constant adoration through the years will e'er endure,
For I'm crazy 'bout that new sweetheart of mine.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A negro youth of about 19 years who wandered into Bolton, Va., last Saturday, was hurled into the Winooski river, where he was drowned, it is charged, by four men who accused him of stealing their dinner pails. Three of the men acused are under arrest. According to the prisoners, the boy was an unwilling participant in a game of "snap and whip," which they resorted to in trying to make him confess the theft. When the whip "snapped" the victim shot into the stream, sinking after a brief struggle. All of the men are railroad section hands. They missed their dinner pails shortly after the negro had passed the spot where they were working and started in pursuite, catching the lad after a long chase. Nothing is known of the negro except he had come to Bolton recently from South Carolina.

Governor Simon E. Baldwin, of Connecticut who is president of the International Societies of Jurisprudence, predicted yesterday that all the present Protestant church denominations would become reunited and that at some future time the Protestant religion would, through Lutheranism, become allied with the Catholic Church, thus making the one church really Catholic in its scope and power. "The Luther communions, in their view of the Lord's Supper, occupy a near position to the Catholic Church," said the Governor, "and could thererore more fitly assume a mediatorial position. I am one of those who hope for the virtual reunion of all Protestant denominations during the next century or two, nor do I deem it impossible that the Catholic Church might ultimately follow. It may be now only a vision, a dream, but vis ons have before now come true."

The names of 41 girls, most of them not yet passed 18 years, were given to the county grand jury at Los Angeles, Cal., yesterday when it was asked to investigate white slavery charges, in which a number of millionaires are said to have lured girls from home and placed them in a "protected resort."

Mrs. Anna Grice, aged 65 years, wife of Samuel Grice, a blacksmith, of Perryman, Md., was struck and instantly killed by a work train on the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington railway crossing, Perrymans. Her 14-months-old granddaughter, child of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hitchcock, of near North East, whom she was carrying on her arms at the time was also killed. Mrs. Grice, who is deaf and dumb, was returning from the postoffice and did not observe the train approaching until too late to escape.

A tiny red shoe on the foot of his first doll yesterday caused the death of Robert, the 6-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wicks, of St. Paul, Minn. Poisonous dye which faded from the shoe was swallowed by the infant. While the mother was singing to the tot, its head suddenly dropped forward. A moment later the baby was dead. A physician said the dye had affected the heart.

When the American fleet sails for the Mediterranean in January it will be a fleet of nearly twice the muzzle energy of the famous battle fleet sent around the world in 1907 by Former President Roosevelt and a fleet of half again as great tonnage. It was the original plan in connection with the opening of the Panama Canal to have the fleet pass through the Atlantic to the Pacific about January 1 the tentative date of the opening. This practically is disarranged by the decision to send the fleet abroad, but it was pointed out that from the Mediterrenean it is comparatively a short voyage through the Suez Canal and into the Pacific and the fleet could return that way, making the passage through the canal from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

It is said by administration leaders in the California Legislature that a definite agreement to re-enact an anti-alien land law directed solely against the Japanese and exempting all foreigners "eligible to citienship in the United States" has been reached and would be carried out this week. It is understood this course has the approval of Governor Johnson and that he will sign the bill immediately upon its passage. Whether such a law could be constitutional will remain in doubt until it is tested in the Federal courts, but it is the settled policy of the majority partly in the legislature to regard the state as having full rights in the matter undetermined by a judicial decision.

A LOP HORNED COW

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1912, by Associated Literary Press.

Ask any farmer you will and he will tell you that a lop horned cow is a trouble maker. When she has a bobbed tail to boot then you look out. You couldn't give her away to any one knowing cow character. She will jump any fence to eat her fill of corn and then seek to destroy what she can't eat.

There had been peace in Woods county for a dozen years when a rumpus suddenly fell upon the land and changed the course of at least two lives and gave a hundred others something besides crops to talk about.

Farmer Jepson, widower, lived four miles from Ackron on the county line road, and Jane Schonfield, widow and farmer, lived three miles west of him on the Red Bridge road. They had lived thus for five years and only knew each other by name. The five years might have become twenty had not an old lop horned cow stepped in to give the parties an introduction.

The cow was owned by the widow. Besides being lop horned she was bobtailed, wild eyed and had various bad habits, one of which was jumping six rail fences and wandering about nights. These promenades sometimes led her miles away and into strange pastures. The first time Farmer Jepson saw her she was in the midst of his cornfield and had cleared about half an acre of the juicy stalks. He was a good man, but he swore at her and called her names. He also tried his best to kill her on the spot. A week later the cow called again to see how the corn was coming on, and after half killing her the farmer sent word that "if that old critter of a cow steps hoof on my land again there'll be a lawsuit to make things rumble!"

The cow didn't hurry matters any. She waited until Mr. Jepson had transplanted his cabbage plants and they had got fairly growing, and then she called one night and helped herself to 250 of them. The first the widow knew of the midnight raid was when she received a summons from a justice of the peace. Suit had been commenced by Farmer Jepson to recover $250 damages.

"So he's sued me, has he?" observed the widow as she doubled up her fists and fire came to her eyes. "Well, we'll see who comes out ahead."

After two or three adjournments the case came to trial, and it was in the courtroom that plaintiff and defendant first saw each other. Both were surprised, and both said something to themselves. What the farmer said was:

"Well, by thunder! I expected to see a fat and homely old two fisted widder, and I find her a good lookin' little bit of a female who ought to be sittin' on a husband's knee. Wish I'd seen her before I begun this suit. The blame old cow damaged me, but I hain't goin' to swear very hard agin no woman like that."

"Lands o' massy, but he hain't no mean man!" exclaimed the widow after a look at the farmer. "Why, they said he was a big boss and bluffer and wanted to bulldoze me 'cause I'm all alone in the world. Say, now, but they are all wrong. He hain't the kind to bluff and pitch in. Wish he had come to see me about the old cow. If he had I'd have chained her up. Wonder how hard he'll swear agin me?"

She was soon to know. The plaintiff's lawyer in opening the case said it was an aggravated case of trespass and damage and that the $250 mentioned wasn't really half what they should have sued for. Then he went on to tell of what a defiant woman the defendant was and wound up by stating his hopes that the jury would render a verdict without leaving the box. Then the plaintiff was called to the witness chair, and, to the surprise of the widow and the disgust of his lawyer, he said he had forgotten the message the woman returned to him. He followed that up by declaring that his feelings had simply been shocked and that he had fully recovered from the shock in a minute and a half. As to the corn and cabbage, perhaps $10 would pay the bill. If a verdict for that amount was rendered he would take it on the installment plan at a dollar a month. He had once owned a lophorned, bobtailed cow, and he knew how hard it was to keep them at home o' nights.

"You jackass, but you have lost your case!" hissed his lawyer as the witness stepped down with a smile in the direction of the widow, whose lawyer was whispering to her:

"Now you get up there and give us some hot talk and your case is won. We've got Jepson on the skedaddle."

There was no hot talk from the widow. On the contrary, she cooed like a dove. She admitted to the ownership of the jumping, predatory cow, but was quite willing to pay reasonable damages. She didn't doubt the plaintiff's shocked feelings and was sorry for them and wished he had hit the old cow with the ax. One of the results of the suit was a verdict for 0 cents' damages, and another was that Farmer Jepson would call at her house for the money. He kept his word. A week later he drove up to the door and after an hour's interview was asked to call again. Three months later his disgusted lawyer was heard to exclaim:

"Prettiest case I ever had and dead sure of a verdict, and Jepson knocks it all in the head by falling in love with the defendant! Yes, they were married yesterday."

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House" tract of land located in Mt. Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximately twenty-seven hundred (2,700) acres, of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash and residue in 3 equal annual payments at one, two and three years from the date of the confirmation of the sale with interest from the said date of the confirmation of sale at the rate of six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, with right to anticipate the time of paying the deferred payments, secured by retention of title till paid.

NEWS OF AMATEUR SPORTS

Alexandria High School to Hold Field Day Tomorrow Afternoon

The Alexandria High School will hold its annual "Field Day" at the ball park tomorrow afternoon, the twenty-third. The events will start promptly at 2:30. There will be Field and Track events and several interesting class relay races. One of the features of the afternoon will be the girls' "Volley Ball Game." The public is urged to be present and help by their support. No admission charges.

High School Winners.

Teh baseball team of the Alexandria High School is deserving better support from the lovers of the game in this city than it has yet received. From the beginning of the season this team of boys has played a cinsistant and strong game and every contest has been close and interesting. Here is a team of boys, purely amateur representing our High School, playing the best games of ball to be seen in the city and thus far the attendance has been worse than poor The next game on schedule should be witnessed by every friend of the school and every fan that loves the game for its own sake. To see these youngsters play once will whet the appetite for all future games. Go out an dtry it. This is the opinion of one in no way connected with the school.

Yesterday's game with the Georgetown Freshmen was well played and exciting from first to last. The visitors were evidently in a higher class than the home team but pluck and timely hitting sent them back to Washington a disappointed crowd. For five innings the game was close and to all appearances a certain victory for Georgetown. In the sixth with the score three to one against them, Alexandria became very busy with the bat. Hard, clean drives by Nalls, Poss and Fisher netled two runs. The seventh brought great joy to the small crowd. With Raison and Devers on by virtue of hits, Anderton laced the ball over the left field fence for a home run. Georgetown scored in the eighth and gave the home team a score in the ninth. In the final round the visitors had men on second and third and one out when Devers grabbed a line drive with his gloved hand, touched second for an unassisted double play and stopped the rally.

The battery work of Raison and Nalls was superb. Although handicapped by a severe injury to his right leg, Raison finished the game and kept the visitors guessing at all times. Cass and Martin were the only men who hit him with any regularity. He allowed but seven scattered hits and did not issue a pass. Devers, at short, was very much in evidence in the field and with Poss and Nalls led at the bat.

Cardinals Not Supported.

The baseball season for the year 1913 has been opened atthe baseball park on north Alfred street, but, it can be truthfully stated, the attendance thus far has been very small—not enough to pay the necessary expenses. Can it be ths tthe "fans of Alexandria do not desire to support the home team? It is to be hoped that such is not a fact In former years our home folks were always ready to aid the boys by attending the games, rooting for them in a way that often brought success when defeat stared them in the face, and, not only that, but would cheerfully assist the lads in a financial way when it was necessary.

This city has many star base ball players who can more than hold their own against any amateurs in the State or District of Columbia or nearby towns, and this is no boast, either, but true in every way. What they need is encouragement to get good results. Fans patronize the baseball park, cheer for the home team during the contests, and do not condemn them should they lose, for the best of teams have off days, and the local lads are no exceptions in this regard.

Many fine baseball organizations will be seen here this season, if it is possible to defray the expenses necessary to bring them here, and it is earnestly desired that all 'Fans" will be as loyal this season as they have been in former years and success is sure to crown the amateur baseball players in Alexandria.

Games will be played every Wednesday and Saturday.

Center Market Coming.

The Center Market team which will play the Cardinals, at the local ball park Wednesday afternoon, will be composed of some of the best ball players in the District, and also have a come-back player by the name of Muir, who is well known in Alexandria, having played with the famous "Old Dominions" which was the pride of Alexandria in the years of 1896-97-98. Among those still living are Thomas A. Fisher, Samuel Fisher, Bob Wenzel, Ed. Clarke and Ed. Beach.

This team should prove to be a big darwing card and a hard nut for the Cardinals. As the Cardinals have now tasted the sting of defeat, they will go after the "Meat Choppers" with a vengeance and will call out its strongest team which will be composed of Hayden and Jones, catchers, Cox or Risdon, pitchers, Astryke, first base, Snowden, second base, Matter, third, Coil, s. s., Trenary, l. f. Cockrell and Scrivener, c. f, and Williams, r. f. Manager Muir of the Butchers will use his two best twirlers, Kunls or Kettler, with Big Six Brewer as catcher.

SCHOOL CHILDREN STRIKE.

Excitement in Pittsburg When Superintendent Heeter is Acquitted.

Hundreds of children yesterday afternoon marched out of schools in various districts of Pittsburg, Pa., and paraded through the streets in protest against the return to office of Superintendent E. L. Heeter, who was acquitted last week of charges against him by Ethel Fishe, nurse in his home. Upon his acquittal accusations were made that he was guilty of misconduct with two other girls.

Heeter had been greeted in church Sunday morning with congratulations. Mothers flocked to the schools and commanded their chidren to remain out.

The movement spread quickly through city until schools on sides of the river were affected. Parades were formed and the children marched through the business streets, singing, "Good night, Heeter," and carrying signs saying, "Kick Heeter out" and "Heeter's a crook." Busness men along the streets en route gave the children candy and coins to spend, shouting encouragement to them.

Those opposed to Heeter say that the strike of the pupils will spread like wildfire and continue until it will be necessary to close the schools.

Last night a noisy crowd made a demonstration in front of Heeter's house and several arrets were made.

CORRECTING JURY VERDICTS.

Supreme Court Decides Appellate Court Must Cease Doing So.

Washington, April 22—Federal appellate courts must no longer correct the verdicts of juries when they believe insufficient evidence has been introduced to support them. Five to four the high courts yesterday decided that such a procedure adopted by some courts to avoid new trials and delays, was in violation of the seventh amendment to the Constitution.

The suit of Lillian F. Slocum, of Pittsburgh, against the New York Insurance Company for $20,000 insurance on her late husband's life, in which the Circuit Court of Appeals for the third circuit, set aside the verdict for Mrs. Slocum, was sent back for retrial.

"The tremendous effect of this decision," declared Justice Hughes, "is not only to overrun the practice of Federal courts in Pennsylvania from following the state law allowing appellate courts to correct verdicts without new trials, but it prevents Congress, without an amendment to the Constitution, to legislate so as to allow federal courts to pass on the sufficiency of evidence and correct the error of juries by deciding the facts themselves, thus saving the cost of new trials."

ULTIMATUM TO MONTENEGRO.

Sent by Commander of International Fleet Blockading Coast.

Antivari, Montenegro, April 22.—An ultimatum has been sent to Montenegro by the commander of the international fleet blockading the coast.

It declares that unless Montenegro imediately withdraws her troops from Scutari, the fleet will land troops at Antivari, Dulcingo and San Giovanni di Medua. An officer was landed at Cattaro and conveyed the ultimatum to Cattinje.

Athens, Greece, April 22.—The reply of the Balkan allies has been presented to the European powers. It is a general acceptance of the offer of mediation between Turkey and the allies with the reservation, however that the questions of the disposal of the islands in the Agean sea and of the delimitation of the frontiers of the province of Thrace and of the future state of Albania shall be left open for debate between the allies and the powers during the negotiations.
